Community Outreach

MCE inmate employees prepare turkeys for the annual “Bea Gaddy Thanksgiving Day Dinner.”

MCE inmate employees launder bras for “Bras for a Cause,” which supports breast cancer awareness.

CARES Re-Entry Program

Combines workforce development training, thinking for a change, job placement and financial literacy to help increase the quality of life and create a smooth transition for offenders returning home.

Reducing Recidivism

A 2007 three year study found that offenders who participated in a MCE program for at least one year were half as likely to reoffend as the general population.

Studies across the nation continue to show that correctional industries have a positive impact on reducing recidivism.

This Job

Changes Lives

“Are we going to build more ‘human warehouses’ or should we change our thinking and create institutions that are training schools and factories with fences... where we will train the inmates and have them engage in useful production to prepare them for the future.” - Chief Justice Warren Burger
